GOOD PLAYERS GUIDE

Players should be encouraged to:

- Recognise and appreciate the efforts made by coaches, parents, match officials and administrators in providing the opportunity to play the game and enjoy the rugby environment.
- Understand the values of loyalty and commitment to adults and team mates.
- Play because they want to do so, not to please coaches or parents.
- Remember that skill development, fun and enjoyment are the most important parts of the game.
- Be attentive at all training and coaching sessions.
- Work equally hard for themselves and their team - both will benefit.
- Recognise good play by all players on their team and by their opponents.
- Be a sportsman - win with dignity, lose with grace.
- Play to the IRB Laws of the Game and accept, without question, all referees' decisions even if they appear to make a mistake.
- Control their emotions. Verbal or physical abuse of team mates, opponents, coaches, match officials or spectators is not acceptable.
- Treat all players, as they would like to be treated themselves.
- Do not bully or take advantage of any player.
